SCHOOL NEWSLETTER TERM 3, WEEK 4

4.8.15

Dear Parents and Friends,

Last week we celebrated Education Week in fine style, with quite a large crowd of parents and friends joining us on Wednesday morning. We managed to get through the public speaking finals, classroom science activities, book fair and “The World’s Biggest Morning Tea”. Phew! The book fair was very popular, and every book purchased helped raise funds for our library. Thanks to everyone who was able to join us and especially to those who contributed to the Cancer Council by making a donation of cakes, cash or both!

Congratulations to all our public speakers who did an absolutely outstanding job in the finals, presenting their interesting and amazing speeches to a very receptive crowd of parents, teachers and fellow students! There was a wide variety of topics chosen for discussion and some of them were very convincing. Most students had memorised their speeches and the others made very subtle and successful use of their palm cards. Well done! Special thanks to Karen from the general store who came along and acted as a guest judge.

All reports are that our school students represented us well as members of the Small Schools team at the District Athletics Carnival. Their participation and cooperation were greatly appreciated. Some outstanding individual results were achieved. Congratulations to Ciarn and also to Jackson and all our other competitors. More detailed information can be found inside this newsletter.

We knew we would have a busy term and we have accomplished a great deal already, but there is a great deal still to do. We will keep you posted.
