SCHOOL NEWSLETTER TERM 1, WEEK 4

20.2.18

Dear Parents and Friends,

Congratulations to Angus who represented our school as part of the Tweed Valley Small Schools Team at the district carnival on Friday. It was his first time representing Tyalgum PS, as he is only in Grade 2, and we are all very proud of him!

Parent – teacher interviews have begun and are progressing well. Please send in your forms or call Sue in the office to make your appointment. Teachers have set aside time this week and next week, but will make themselves available at other times if requested. Reading is such an important skill, and should also be a pleasurable one. The absolute best thing that a parent can do to help their child do well at school is to encourage a love of reading. Reading together in the early years, and then talking about books as the reader becomes more independent are simple ways to demonstrate interest and encourage young readers.

"There's so much more to a book than just the reading." - Maurice Sendak

Headlice

Headlice are thriving in the humid conditions and many parents have reported that their children are coming home with these unpleasant pests in their hair. Parents and carers are advised to check their children's hair every day. Advice for treatment is included in this newsletter.
