SCHOOL NEWSLETTER TERM 2, WEEK 4

22.5.18

Dear Parents and Friends,

We are grateful for this glorious weather when the children can enjoy games played on our lovely grounds. Everyone is keeping up their fitness with regular runs, and developing their skills in various athletics events.

We have 17 students attending the District Cross Country Carnival this week. Thank you to the parents who are ensuring that their children arrive on time for the event and who will be cheering all our runners on. Miss Curby will be an official at the carnival.

Our students are being reminded to wear their shady hats, even as the weather cools. "NO HAT, NO PLAY" is the standard across all schools in NSW. Tyalgum PS students are fortunate to have large roofed areas that are protected from the sun, but the choice of fun activity becomes limited when they have to remain under a roof, because they forgot their hat.

"Nature's beauty is a gift that cultivates appreciation and gratitude." -

PARENTS DO YOU KNOW IF YOUR CHILD IS SAFE ON SOCIAL MEDIA? ARE YOU SAFE ON SOCIAL MEDIA? A WORKSHOP FOR PARENTS NOT TO BE MISSED

Save the date: 19th June 6 - 7pm Wollumbin High Library.

Safe on Social is giving a range of age-appropriate presentations at Wollumbin High on June 19th, funded by our P&C. Safe on Social director Kirra Pendergast works with schools, in Australia and internationally, and businesses with a focus on social media safety and welfare. Her presentations are powerful, punchy and incredibly thought-provoking. She will have you racing home to lock down your privacy settings, turn off your location settings, delete a few apps and reconsider what and how you post online.

Parents are invited to attend the free evening session from 6-7 p.m. This session will cover content that is not appropriate for younger people and hence they cannot be admitted – the session is strictly for parents.

Safe on Social presentations are inspiring, empowering and completely current. As a parent, you are encouraged to be proactive in understanding how to use social media in a positive way and protect yourself online. You will also have a clearer understanding of what your children are doing online and will be better equipped to have open and honest discussions about keeping them safe. Do not miss this memorable event – it will change your online habits forever. It is at no cost to parents, thanks to our wonderful Wollumbin High School P&C.
